

Some WEB Listings To Help You To Get Your Canadian Amateur Radio Certification

For Local Training Courses And for Purchasing of Training Manuals

West Coast Amateur Radio Association (W.A.R.A.): <http://www.ve7vic.ca/>
See button “Education” for details.

A Victoria Amateur Radio Club Involved With Text Messaging

Victoria Amateur Radio Packet Association: <http://www.varpa.bc.ca/>

For Membership In The Overall Umbrella Amateur Radio Association For All Of Canada, And Also For Purchasing of RAC Training Manuals

Radio Amateurs Canada: <http://www.rac.ca/index.htm>

Red Cross Agency Working With Volunteer Radio Operators During Disasters (Locally Working With W.A.R.A.)

Canadian Red Cross Disaster Preparedness:
<http://www.redcross.ca/article.asp?id=005472&tid=036>

BC Emergency Preparedness Organization Mostly Made Up of Volunteers

BC Provincial Emergency Program: <http://www.pep.bc.ca/index.html>

Federal Government Agency Responsible for Setting Standards and Licensing Amateur Radio Operators In Canada

Industry Canada Radio Information Circulars:
<http://strategis.ic.gc.ca/epic/internet/insmt-gst.nsf/en/sf05478e.html>

Industry Canada Test Generator:
http://strategis.ic.gc.ca/epic/internet/insmt-gst.nsf/en/h_sf05378e.html

WEB Site Devoted to Accepting And Displaying User Reviews of Radio, Antenna, and Related Equipment

eHam – one of the very best places to see reviews on used amateur radios, antennas, and accessories: <http://www.eham.net/reviews/>

Good Source of American Radio Relay League Handbooks and Other Manuals

Amazon Canada (Books) <http://www.amazon.ca/>

For further information on amateur radio training you may contact:
Donn Hilton at (250)721-4440
or by email at radio.va7dh@gmail.com